THURSDAY EVEN'G, DEC. 8, 1887.

SPEAKING of "shooting" the natural gas well at this place the Courier-Journal remarks that all the gas wells ought to be shot.

NEWPORT has a dog-tax collector, and he has found seven hundred and fifty dogs in that city and is not through with his work.

We venture the assertion that Maysville has more societies of a literary character than any other town of its size in the State.

It is reported that Lexington people have made an offer equivalent to $75,000 to secure the car-shops of the Cincinnati Southern Railroad.

JUDGE J. W. HUGHES, of the Mercer County Court, has decided that Harrodsburg is a local option town. The trustees of that place have passed a very stringent ordinance against the sale of liquor. There is much rejoicing amongst the temperance people.

THE Carlisle Mercury says: "Maysville is to have her city election on the 2nd of January. We give notice now that if the newspapers of Maysville make as much ado about their election as did Louisville papers about theirs, we shall ask for the enforcement of the quarantine law."

WHATEVER the bucket-shops of Kentucky have done, it can not be said that they have made millionaires of their visitors. Bucket-shop speculators have about as good a chance as any others to remain honest and poor so long as they blow in only their own friends.—Courier-Journal.

The two great parties agree that taxes ought to be reduced,—that something ought to be done to stop the piling up of money in the United States Treasury. There is entirely too much there already. Republicans, however, would abolish the internal revenue and give the people cheap whisky and tobacco. This the Democrats oppose and are fighting for cheap food and cheap clothing—necessaries of life. The President's message voices the sentiments of his party. The Republican cry of "free trade" can no longer delude the people of the country.

PROHIBITIONISTS are rejoicing over a recent decision of the Supreme Court of the country. "The prohibition law of Kansas forbids not only the sale but the manufacture of intoxicating drinks (specifically mentioning spirits, beer and wine) within the State limits. This at once stopped the distilleries and the breweries, and made their extensive "plants" a dead loss to them. They claimed that they had a "vested right," and that the State could not destroy their property without paying them for it. This claim they fought through all the courts up to the Supreme Court of the United States. The latter has just decided that their claim is wrong—that the State need not pay them."

In August, 1888, the voters of Mason County will elect a Sheriff to succeed Mr. Dan Perrine, the present excellent officer. We can congratulate ourselves in having had in the past first-class men to fill this position. J. C. Pickett, Perry Jefferson, Joseph F. Perrie and others have filled the office with credit and ability. Mr. Perrine has given unusual satisfaction and made a fine record. Since he is ineligible for a third term, Mr. Alexander, his popular deputy, has announced himself for the place. As Deputy Sheriff for several years Mr. Alexander has acquired an experience and personal acquaintance with the duties pertaining to the office to which he aspires that will be very valuable and peculiarly fit him for Sheriff. It is not known yet whether there will be a contest for the nomination, but in any event it is safe and proper to say that the man who defeats Mr. Alexander in convention or primary or before the people will have to rise early and go to bed late.—Sunday Call.

Ladies' Bonnets.

Many of the new bonnets are made with crowns of embroidered felt. These come in round pieces of felt in all shades in open work and embroidered in contrasting colors, or else silver, gold or copper. They are set upon frames whose brims have been covered with velvet, and are trimmed either with feathers or ribbon. Some of the felt bonnets are made of narrow edging of felt embroidered in scallops, and this is set in close overlapping rows over the entire bonnet. A pretty gray one is embroidered with scallops of silver and trimmed with gray feathers and poppy velvet.

Personal.

A. H. Parker, of Vanceburg, was in Maysville yesterday.

County Superintendent L. W. Galbraith has returned from Tennessee.

Mr. James McIlvaine, of Louisville, is in town visiting his brother, Mr. John McIlvaine.

Life in the Paris Sewers, is possible, for a short time to the robust, but the majority of refined persons would prefer immediate death to existence in their reeking atmosphere. How much more revolting to be in one's self a living sewer. But this is actually the case with those in whom the inactivity of the liver drives the refuse matter of the body to escape through the lungs, breath, the pores, kidneys and bladder. It is astonishing that life remains in such a dwelling. Dr. Pierce's "Golden Medical Discovery" restores normal purity to the system and renews the whole being.

ABERDEEN.

D. B. Howard, a prominent farmer living near here, was surprised a few days ago by his neighbors who assembled at his home in crowds, the occasion being the fifty-first anniversary of his birth. All carried well-filled baskets and a sumptuous feast was enjoyed. Mr. Howard received a number of handsome presents. The following is a list of friends that were present: Mr. and Mrs. John Howard, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Howard, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Foulke, Miss Ruth Howard, Mr. Titus Howard, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Perry, Mr. T. B. Fulton, Mrs. F. W. Waldron, Miss Belle Fulton, Miss Arlie Waldron, Mr. and Mrs. Jessie Flaughner, Mr. and Mrs. John Garrison, Mr. and Mrs. Zane Cooper, Mr. and Mrs. Campbell Flaughner, Mr. William McDaniel, Mr. and Mrs. David McDaniel, Mr. and Mrs. Silie Haron, Mr. Ephie King, Mr. John Waldron, Miss Mollie Helms, Miss Edie Fitch.

Power Campbell Camp, No. 164, Sons of Veterans, elected the following officers at its last meeting:

First Lieutenant—Robert Purdon.
Second Lieutenant—William Mutschelknaus.
Camp Council—D. A. Ellis, William N. Campbell and G. W. Scholtz.
Mustering officer—S. P. Campbell.
Representative—W. A. Rist.
Alternate—Thomas McDaniel.

A card of thanks was tendered Captain W. A. Rist for the faithful performance of the duties of the office he had filled so well.

"Her face so fair, as flesh it seemed not,
But heavenly portrait of bright angel's hue,
Clear as the sky, without a blame or blot,
Through goodly mixture of complexioned dyes,
And in her cheeks the vermilion reddish glow."

This is the poet's description of a woman whose physical system was in a perfectly sound and healthy state, with every function acting properly, and is the enviable condition of its fair patrons produced by Dr. Pierce's "Favorite Prescription." Any druggist.

Glucose Factory Wrecked.

TIPPECANOE CITY, O., Dec. 5.—One of the boilers at the American glucose works let go at 7 o'clock Monday morning, blowing the boiler room into the canal and setting the works on fire. Firemen Buck Magee and William Springstein were buried under the falling debris and rescued with great difficulty, both being badly injured. They had their legs broken and received internal injuries. Engineer Jim Smith had a narrow escape, being directly over the exploding boiler, and was hurled through a small window, receiving injuries about the head. Crude oil is the fuel, and the firemen had a hard tussle to save the works from the flames. Flying pieces of the boiler, bricks, planks and debris were scattered around for hundreds of yards. A part of the top of the high stack was knocked off, and the east end of the large factory is in ruins. The rescuers and firemen stuck bravely at work while momentarily expecting the other boiler to explode. The whole town was badly shaken up by the explosion, doors flying open and windows banging a half mile away.

Wonderful Experience of a Minister.

CHICAGO, Dec. 8.—The Rev. Dr. John Williamson gave to the Methodist ministers, at their weekly meeting, a wonderful experience which he has had the past year. He is the pastor of Michigan Avenue Methodist church, and a year ago his health was so bad that his physician told him he would have to rest at least a whole year. It was with great reluctance that he agreed to do this; it was the greatest sacrifice of his life. Some months afterward this weighed on his heart so much that he cried aloud unto the Lord for Divine aid. Dr. Williamson stated that at that time he held a sweet and indescribable communion with God, in which he was assured that his health would be restored. His physician had but recently assured him that he was as well as he ever was before, and he ascribes this wonderful cure entirely to Divine healing. The relating of Dr. Williamson's experience caused quite a sensation, and many there were who agreed with him that it was an example of Divine healing.

A Reception to Dr. Parker.

BROOKLYN, N. Y., Dec. 8.—Dr. Parker was tendered a reception yesterday evening in the Sunday school rooms of Plymouth church. About five hundred members of the church were present and their attentions to their guest were very cordial. Mayor Whitney escorted Mrs. Parker on entering the room and was followed by Mrs. Beecher leaning on Dr. Parker's arm. Rev. S. B. Halliday stood at Dr. Parker's side during the evening and made the introductions. After the ceremonies Dr. Parker made a little speech, expressing his love for Mr. Beecher and his church. He referred regretfully to recent misunderstandings, and said that it was part of the Christian character not to impute evil without its being clearly deserved. He was greatly pleased with his visit, and warmly thanked the people for their kind wishes for a safe voyage home. He sails on Saturday.

Fatal Dynamite Explosion.

WILKESBARRE, Pa., Dec. 8.—Another destructive explosion of dynamite occurred yesterday on the new Pittston branch of the Lehigh Valley railroad. Section Foreman Miles Sweeney, of Philadelphia, was instantly killed and five Italian laborers were severely injured. A hole had been drilled in the rock and filled with powder. The blast failed, and while the powder was being removed it exploded, hurling the men fifty feet away.

Gigantic Scheme.

NEW YORK, Dec. 8.—The Times says that English and American capitalists are jointly interested in a gigantic scheme for building docks and warehouses on Staten Island and establishing a fast freight line to Europe. Freight from the west is to be shipped through to Europe with the minimum handling or change of bulk.
